PREACHING TO THE HEART

As Jesus walked with the two on the way to Emmaus and heard of their struggle with the events pertaining to Jesus he said to them "O foolish ones, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets had spoken!" (Luke 24:25) He "interpreted to them in all the Scriptures the things concerning himself." And "they said to each other, did not our hearts burn within us while he talked to us on the road, while he opened to us the Scriptures?" (Luke 24:32) On the day of Pentecost Peter preached the word of God. Luke tells us that when the people heard the sermon they were "cut to the heart." (Acts 2:37) The writer to the Hebrews says "the word of God is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing to the division of soul and of spirit, of joints and of marrow and discerning the thoughts and intentions of the heart. And no creature is hidden from his site, but all are naked and exposed to the eyes of him to whom we must give account." (Hebrews 4:12-13)

During this symposium we will seek to listen to the Scriptures for what can we learn about the preparation and preaching of sermons that preach to the heart. We explore such questions as: What do the Scriptures mean by preaching? What do the Scriptures mean by heart? What does it mean to preach to the heart? What is preaching Law and Gospel to the heart?
